DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. If applicant desires to claim the benefit of a prior-filed application under 35 U.S.C. 120, a specific reference to the prior-filed application in compliance with 37 CFR 1.78(a) must be included in the first sentence(s) of the specification following the title or in an application data sheet. For benefit claims under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121 or 365(c), the reference must include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) of the applications.

If the instant application is a utility or plant application filed under 35 U.S.C. 111(a) on or after November 29, 2000, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the actual filing date of the application or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. If the application is a utility or plant application which entered the national stage from an international application filed on or after November 29, 2000, after compliance with 35 U.S.C. 371, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the date on which the national stage commenced under 35 U.S.C. 371(b) or (f) or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. See 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2)(ii) and (a)(5)(ii). This time period is not extendable and a failure to submit the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 119(e) and/or 120, where applicable, within this time period is considered a waiver of any benefit of such prior application(s) under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). A benefit claim filed after the required time period may be accepted if it is accompanied by a grantable petition to accept an unintentionally delayed benefit claim under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). The petition must be accompanied by (1) the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 120 or 119(e) and 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) to the prior application (unless previously submitted), (2) a surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t), and (3) a statement that the entire delay between the date the claim was due under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional. The Director may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional. The petition should be addressed to: Mail Stop Petition, Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450.

If the reference to the prior application was previously submitted within the time period set forth in 37 CFR 1.78(a), but not in the first sentence(s) of the specification or an application data sheet (ADS) as required by 37 CFR 1.78(a) (e.g., if the reference was submitted in an oath or declaration or the application transmittal letter), and the information concerning the benefit claim was recognized by the Office as shown by its inclusion on the first filing receipt, the petition under 37 CFR 1.78(a) and the surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t) are not required. Applicant is still required to submit the reference in compliance with 37 CFR 1.78(a) by filing an amendment to the first sentence(s) of the specification or an ADS. See MPEP § 201.11.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 5,564,782 to LaGrange et al. in view of U.S. Patent No. 5,700,053 to Downing.

LaGrange et al. disclose a rocking chair slipper that is basically the same as that recited in claims 1-10 except that the fabric lacks ribbon strips and two layers of fabric housing the foam, as recited in the claims. See Figures 1-5 of LaGrange et al. for the teaching that the slipper has an elastic strip(s) 36 (see Fig. 2) attached around an edge of an opening, a fabric 28 that stretches all ways to expand to fit and conform to the shape and length of a rocker foot and includes decorative trim, and foam 37 (Fig. 3A) inserted in the fabric on the bottom of the slipper. Downing shows a slipper similar to that of LaGrange et al. wherein the slipper has a fabric with an opening, ribbons about eight inches in length that are on both side of the fabric edge and located about 6-8 inches from the front and back corners of the opening, and a foam located between two layers of the fabric. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the slipper of LaGrange et al. such that the fabric includes ribbons on both sides of the fabric edge, eight inches in length, one ribbon located eight inches from the front corner of the fabric opening, another ribbon located six inches from the back corner of the fabric opening, and the foam is inserted between two layers of the fabric on the bottom of the slipper, such as the slipper disclosed in Downing. One would have been motivated to make such a modification in view of the suggestion in Downing that the ribbon allow for easy attachment of the slipper to a chair and the foam inserted in the fabric provides a pocket for holding the foam in place.

Although the lengths of the ribbons, the elastic strip, and the fabric are not specifically recited, modifying these lengths would have been obvious at the time of Applicant's invention because the use of preferred lengths and the optimum or workable ranges discovered by routine experimentation is ordinarily within the skill of the art. Further, it would have been an obvious matter of design choice to modify the lengths of the ribbons, the elastic strip, and the fabric since the Applicant has not disclosed that having the specific lengths solve any stated problem or is for any particular purpose and it appears that the ribbons and elastic strip would perform equally well with an well known lengths used in the art.

Response to Amendment

4. The amendment to the claims filed on 15 February 2006 does not comply with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.121(c) because the amendment includes text from previously submitted amendments that were deemed non-compliant, e.g. the parentheses included throughout claim 1 that were not in the originally filed claim 1. In the event of another amendment to the claims, the amendment must comply with 37 CFR 1.121(c)

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant should submit an argument under the heading "Remarks" pointing out disagreements with the examiner's contentions. Applicant must also discuss the references applied against the claims, explaining how the claims avoid the references or distinguish from them.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
